RE: A Message From Cintas President & CEO Todd Schneider

UniFirst Team Partners,

On behalf of everyone at Cintas, I want to reiterate how excited we are to bring our two companies together. I hope you will take a couple minutes to watch a short video message from me, where I express my enthusiasm for the future, initial details on what you can expect post-close and what I believe we can accomplish together.

Both of our companies have a dedication, professionalism and commitment to service excellence that enable us to deliver essential workday solutions to businesses and workers across North America every day. We look forward to welcoming the overwhelming majority of the UniFirst team to Cintas once the deal closes to build on the proud histories of both of our organizations. We're confident that by coming together we'll create new opportunities for our employees and deliver even more value to the customers we serve in an increasingly competitive market.

We will have more opportunities to be in touch in the months to come, but I will close by reiterating how excited I am about what this next chapter will bring as we move forward together.

All my best,

Todd Schneider
President and CEO, Cintas

The following is the transcript of the video message referenced in the note from Todd Schneider, President & CEO of Cintas to all UniFirst Partners:

Hello everyone, I'm Todd Scheider, President and CEO of Cintas.

By now you've heard about our plans to combine UniFirst and Cintas.

We've long admired the business that you've built. The extended courting process we've had with your leadership team, the Board and the Croatti family has only reinforced our belief that our two companies' cultures are a great match.

Both the Croatti family and Cintas' founding family, the Farmers, have built highly successful companies based on hard work and personal relationships.

Both organizations rank our people and our customers as really what makes us special.

The most important thing I want to tell you today is that on day one, you become a Cintas partner.

In a merger like this, all UniFirst team members become Cintas partners immediately and we honor your start date with UniFirst. Meaning for purposes of paid time off, 401(k), profit sharing, medical benefits and all benefits, we treat your start date with UniFirst as your start date with Cintas.

You may ask yourself, "does Cintas really need me?" But to put it simply, we don't have a bench of people at Cintas to serve an additional 300,000 customers.

We need all kinds of talented people. If you're an RSR, we need you to serve customers. If you're a sales rep, we want to grow our business. We need your help. If you're a divisional director of ops, we need the most talented people to run businesses.

And this is all separate from needing people to get products ready to be delivered to customers, which is incredibly important.

I thought it was really important that you hear all this directly from me as there has been and will be plenty of rumors in the marketplace that simply are not true.

Now integrating two businesses is never simple and change is always hard, but I'm simply asking that you give us a chance.

I think what you'll find when we combine our organizations together, we're going to be that much more successful.

But the most important resource in every single business is the people. The people take care of the customers, and without a customer you don't have a business.

By joining forces, we'll be better positioned to be highly successful and serve more customers, which will create more opportunities for the employee-partners involved in the business.

We've competed for years, and we'll continue to do so until we've closed on our deal, but our companies have a lot more in common than you might think.

I'll be back in touch as things progress, but in the meantime, take care of your customers and each other.

Thank you.

Forward-looking statements are based on information available and assumptions made at the time the statements are made. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements in this communication include, but are not limited to, statements about the benefits of the transaction between Cintas and UniFirst (the "Transaction"), including future financial and operating results, the combined company's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions, and other statements that are not historical facts.

The following Transaction-related factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by forward-looking statements: the occurrence of any event, change, or other circumstance that could give rise to the right of one or both of the parties to terminate the definitive merger agreement between Cintas and UniFirst; the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Cintas or UniFirst; the possibility that the Transaction does not close when expected or at all because required regulatory, shareholder, or other approvals and other conditions to closing are not received or satisfied on a timely basis or at all (and the risk that seeking or obtaining such approvals may result in the imposition of conditions that could adversely affect the combined company or the expected benefits of the Transaction); the risk that the benefits from the Transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected, including as a result of changes in, or problems arising from, general economic and market conditions, interest and exchange rates, monetary policy, trade policy (including tariff levels), laws and regulations and their enforcement, and the degree of competition in the geographic and business areas in which Cintas and UniFirst operate; any failure to promptly and effectively integrate the businesses of Cintas and UniFirst; the possibility that the Transaction may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events; reputational risk and potential adverse reactions of Cintas' or UniFirst's customers, employees or other business partners, including those resulting from the announcement, pendency or completion of the Transaction; the dilution caused by Cintas' issuance of additional shares of its capital stock in connection with the Transaction; changes in the trading price of Cintas' or UniFirst's capital stock; and the diversion of management's attention and time to the Transaction from ongoing business operations and opportunities.

Additional important factors relating to UniFirst that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, uncertainties caused by an economic recession or other adverse economic conditions, including, without limitation, as a result of elevated inflation or interest rates or extraordinary events or circumstances such as geopolitical conflicts like the conflict between Russia and Ukraine and disruption in the Middle East, and their impact on UniFirst's customers' businesses and workforce levels; disruptions of UniFirst's business and operations, including limitations on, or closures of, UniFirst's facilities, or the business and operations of UniFirst's customers or suppliers in connection with extraordinary events or circumstances; uncertainties regarding UniFirst's ability to consummate acquisitions and successfully integrate acquired businesses, and the performance of such businesses; uncertainties regarding any existing or newly-discovered expenses and liabilities related to environmental compliance and remediation; any adverse outcome of pending or future contingencies or claims; UniFirst's ability to compete successfully without any significant degradation in UniFirst's margin rates, seasonal and quarterly fluctuations in business levels; UniFirst's ability to preserve positive labor relationships and avoid becoming the target of corporate labor unionization campaigns that could disrupt UniFirst's business; the effect of currency fluctuations on UniFirst's results of operations and financial condition; UniFirst's dependence on third parties to supply UniFirst with raw materials, which such supply could be severely disrupted as a result of extraordinary events or circumstances such as the conflict between Russia and Ukraine; any loss of key management or other personnel; increased costs as a result of any changes in federal, state, international or other laws, rules and regulations or governmental interpretation of such laws, rules and regulations; uncertainties regarding, or adverse impacts from continued high price levels of natural gas, electricity, fuel and labor or increases in such costs; the negative effect on UniFirst's business from sharply depressed oil and natural gas prices; the continuing increase in domestic healthcare costs, increased workers' compensation claim costs, increased healthcare claim costs; UniFirst's ability to retain and grow its customer base, demand and prices for UniFirst's products and services; fluctuations in UniFirst's nuclear business; political or other instability; supply chain disruption or infection among UniFirst's employees in Mexico and Nicaragua where UniFirst's principal garment manufacturing plants are located; UniFirst's ability to properly and efficiently design, construct, implement and operate a new enterprise resource planning ("ERP") computer system; interruptions or failures of UniFirst's information technology systems, including as a result of cyber-attacks; additional professional and internal costs necessary for compliance with any changes in or additional SEC, NYSE and accounting or other rules; strikes and unemployment levels; UniFirst's efforts to evaluate and potentially reduce internal costs; the impact of U.S. and foreign trade policies and tariffs or other impositions on imported goods on UniFirst's business, results of operations and financial condition; UniFirst's ability to successfully implement its business strategies and processes, including UniFirst's capital allocation strategies; UniFirst's ability to successfully remediate the material weakness in internal control over financial reporting disclosed in UniFirst's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 30, 2025, filed with the SEC on October 29, 2025, in an appropriate and timely matter or at all; and the other risks and contingencies detailed in UniFirst's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and its other filings with the SEC.

These factors are not necessarily all of the factors that could cause Cintas', UniFirst's or the combined company's actual results, performance, or achievements to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by any forward-looking statements. Other unknown or unpredictable factors also could harm Cintas', UniFirst's or the combined company's results.
